

Special Permission, Conditions, and Release Form for Home Hospitality Travel In areas of Israel “beyond the Green Line” (1967 borders of Israel)

I/we, _____ the parents, of _____, our son/daughter, who is currently participating The Nesiya Institute's Kehillah Experience 2009 Program, , am/are writing to grant our permission, and agreement to accept full responsibility, for allowing our child to participate in an Israeli home hospitality experience, July 23-26, 2009, in an area of Israel that is excluded from the travel areas permitted by the program.

We, the parents, understand that travel beyond what is commonly referred to as “The Green Line” in Israel is not recommended by The Nesiya Institute in the current environment. The Israeli staff of the Nesiya Institute is available to speak individually with families

The Nesiya Institute, furthermore, reserves the right to stipulate the exact conditions that all host families must observe in order to host a member of this program.

Participants granted permission for special travel “beyond-the-Green Line” must be met by a member of the host family or the participant's family and returned to locations specified by the Nesiya staff. In addition, The Nesiya Institute recommends that the participant and host family travel only by bullet-proof public bus to and from areas beyond the Green Line.

We, the parent(s), furthermore agree to assume full responsibility for giving permission for our child to travel beyond the "Green Line,” and hereby release The Nesiya Institute and their staff from all liability or responsibility for anything that may happen during our child’s visit beyond the "Green Line.”
